Starter game

Feet drawing. Each person has to try and draw a self portrait but they can't use their hands. Maybe hold the pencil in their mouths or with their feet.

Alternatively you could do a game where they can't see or hear, anything fun and engaging which helps bring to life Paul's illustration in the passage.

Intro

The context of this passage in 1 Cor 12 is spiritual gifts, the Lord gives his church gifts so that they can be used together for His glory.

Questions

- 1. Why is it so brilliant that the body is made up of different parts? le not just ears!!!

Have fun with this one but make sure you land on the point that it is brilliant that God has designed us this way and if we were just one thing all the same it wouldn't work

- 2. Okay, well then why is it so brilliant that church is made up different people with different gift?

It's very easy to think that not everyone is as important, maybe think of examples of different people in the church and show the young people how different but important they are.

- 3. This means all our gifts are from God and for God. What gifts do we have that we can use for Him?

Try and be practical, what do they love, what are they good at? This is how God has made them and this is where God has placed them. It could be music, evangelism, helping out or being a good caring friend.

Brain stretcher for older kids- What are the reasons people sometimes don't get on and how does this passage show us that the church must be different?

Praying together

Thank you- That you I get to be part of your amazing church

Sorry- for when we try and do it on our own

Please- help us all to use our gifts for each other
